Equine Canada Announces the 2014 Breed Sport Canada Horse of the Year Awards

PRESS RELEASE FROM WWW.EQUINECANADA.CA

2014 Arabian Horse of the Year - Sur Teddy's Magna +++//

Equine Canada has named Sur Teddy's Magna +++//, more affectionately known as Teddy, the 2014 Arabian Horse of the Year. Owned and ridden by Lorraine Prowse, the 18-year-old gelding has proven himself a fierce competitor, winning more National titles than any other horse in North America. Teddy and Prowse have been competing together for more than 15 years after first partnering when Teddy was three and Prowse was just 15.

They won their first National title in 2005 and have gone on to earn 87 more, including 23 National Championships and 18 Reserve National Championships, competing in Sport Horse Under Saddle, Working Hunter, Hunter Hack, Training Level Dressage and First Level Dressage on the Arabian circuit.

While most people know for his impressive accomplishments in the show ring, it is his heart that truly makes him special. Prowse describes him as a "once-in-a-lifetime horse" who "gives everything he's got to please."

2014 Recipient: Sur Teddy's Magna +++//

2014 Half Arabian Horse of the Year - Sweet and Saucy

Equine Canada has named Wanda Leubner's Sweet and Saucy as the 2014 Half Arabian Horse of the Year. The 19-year-old mare has won four National Championships and 20 Regional Championships in her lifetime, including the 2014 Canadian National Champion Ladies Sidesaddle. Leubner and Sweet and Saucy also compete in Show Hack, Country English Pleasure and Country Pleasure Driving.

Leubner fondly describes her partner as a "horse of a lifetime" and says she has been "blessed" to own and show this incredibly gifted horse.

2014 Recipient: Sweet and Saucy

AHA would like to congratulate these fantastic horses on their receiving of these prestigious awards. What a fantastic representation of the Arabian breed. Congratulations to Sur Teddy's Magna+++// and owner Lorraine Prowse and Sweet and Saucy and owner Wanda Leubner.
