VISION STATEMENT

Arabian Horse Association exists for growth in the number of people having a passion to own and enjoy the Arabian, Half-Arabian and Anglo-Arabian horse.

MISSION STATEMENT

To promote:

- ❖ Growth in the interest in, and demand for the Arabian, Half-Arabian and Anglo-Arabian horse;
- ❖ Preservation of the integrity of the breed;
- ❖ Increased participation in activities involving the Arabian, Half-Arabian and Anglo-Arabian horse;
- ❖ Recognition by the equine industry and general public about the value and attributes of the Arabian, Half-Arabian and Anglo-Arabian horses; and
- ❖ Ensure services and benefits that are valuable and convenient for the AHA members.

THE GOAL OF THE EDUCATION AND EVALUATION COMMISSION

It is the primary goal of the Education and Evaluation Commission to establish an accepted standard for all Arabian, Half-Arabian and Anglo-Arabian owners, breeders, exhibitors and officials. This standard recommends and expects all persons associated with the Arabian breeds to be honest, forthright, ethical and sportsmanlike in relationships with each other and at any time they are involved with the Arabian horse Breeds and anytime they are involved in a Competition. The Arabian Horse Association endorses the principles as stated in the USEF sportsman charter and EC Code of Conduct.

We believe every exhibitor has an absolute right to expect his or her horse to be judged against the same criteria regardless who is judging or in what part of the country the show is held. It is the function of this commission to establish the Arabian ideal standard to see that it is universally accepted and adhered to. The Education and Evaluation Commission strives to upgrade the quality and consistency of Arabian horse judging.

These standards have been adopted by the Arabian Horse Association in order to provide all levels of horse show judges with a standard of perfection against which horse show exhibitors may be measured and placed.

Breeders who strive to produce individual Arabian, Half-Arabian/Anglo-Arabian horses that meet these standards should feel confident that all judges will be using these standards as their criteria of excellence.

It is the responsibility of all judges, stewards, exhibitors, and officials to be familiar with and to comply with the criteria and the intent of the Arabian Horse Judging Standards.
