CBP 101. COMMITTEES - GENERAL RULES
1. For all membership requirements refer to Chapter 7. Individual Adult Membership is required for all Committee Members unless the committee description and makeup are prescribed otherwise.

2. The committees of Arabian Horse Association (AHA) serve a very important function in the membership communication process. The measurable success of the organization is based upon the activity and energy of these groups. To those who serve, AHA expresses appreciation for their dedication.

3. If you are interested in serving on any committee,
   a. Committee chairs/members must be members of AHA unless the committee description and make-up are prescribed otherwise.
   b. You should first determine how frequently that committee meets and whether you are willing to make the commitment of time, energy and money required to attend those meetings. No reimbursements will be made or budgeted for any individual expenses in conjunction with the AHA Annual Convention.
   c. Ask your Regional Director for guidance before signing up.

4. The duties of committee members are,
   a. Identify issues of concern that should be brought to the committee.
   b. Represent the concerns of the members of Member Organizations in the Region to the committee.
   c. Heighten awareness of relevant issues, stimulate input and plan appropriate projects, gather ideas and information.

5. The administration of AHA rules, policies and procedures, and all business transactions including but not limited to contract negotiations, budgeting and the handling of funds, will be the responsibility of AHA staff with the approval of the Executive Committee and Board of Directors (BOD) of AHA. (Refer to CBP 102 & CBP 103)

6. The Agenda and Resolutions Committee shall make referrals of proposed resolutions and the Convention agenda to committees. The failure of a committee to report on a proposed resolution referred to it shall be construed as a recommendation for the resolution.

7. All committees will submit a written report on the Committee Report form provided by the AHA office to the Board of Directors a minimum of three times a year. These Committee reports are due thirty days prior to the Board meetings each year, with the exception of those committees that meet in conjunction with the AHA Board meeting who will submit their report at that time. (BOD 5/98)

8. All members of committees will adhere to the AHA Code of Ethics and Sportsmanship Conduct and the AHA Member Code of Conduct at all times.

9. All committees and their members will adhere to the rules, policies and procedures of AHA at all times. Exceptions must have prior approval of the Executive Committee or Board of Directors of AHA.

10. No Committee Chair on behalf of a Committee shall make a recommendation to the Board of Directors without first having received the required number of votes of that Committee on any item of business either in person, by mail or other forms of communication, and all recommendations shall be accompanied by an actual tally of the votes received. (Res. 41-74)

11. Duties of the Committee Chair are,
   a. Work with the other Committee members to address concerns and carry out projects throughout the year.
   b. Be a catalyst to facilitate communication to and from the Regions and Member Organizations.
   c. Send communications to all Committee members, the AHA Board of Directors, and the Staff or Board Liaison (BOD 8/10) within the first week of each Board of Directors meeting. The AHA President, or his/her designee, shall send a letter to all committee chairs who failed to submit a committee report to the Board of Directors advising said Chair that failure to submit a committee report to the Board of Directors for the next meeting, or future meeting, shall result in immediate removal of said chair and appointment of the committee Vice Chair or other designated individual as Chair effective upon notification. Further, said removed Committee Chair shall be ineligible to serve as any Committee Chair for AHA for a period of one year from the date of said removal. (BOD 8/10)
   d. Committee Chairs and Committee Members are also encouraged to communicate by phone, fax, e-mail and the Internet. The primary intra-committee communications shall be by e-mail. (BOD 5/07)
   e. AHA will appoint a Staff Liaison to assist the Chairs. (BOD 5/07)
   f. Their responsibilities would include:
      • Tabulating applications for committee membership,
      • providing committee membership lists to Chairs,
      • assisting in election of the committee Chairs (if applicable),
      • monitoring periodic reports by the Chairs,
      • periodically soliciting and tabulating evaluation reports of committees by their members,
      • periodically reporting committee performance to the Executive Committee,
      • disseminating committee reports to all AHA members.

12. Failure to comply with any of these policies may result in the termination of an individual's responsibilities as a committee member at the discretion of the AHA Board of Directors.

CBP 102. CONTRACTS AND AUTHORITY TO BIND AHA
1. No officer, member, employee, or agent of AHA acting on behalf of AHA may enter into any transaction for AHA in which such person or any member of such person's immediate family (as defined by USEF/EC) has a direct or indirect financial interest without prior approval of the Board of Directors after a full disclosure of the facts. (BOD 5/93)

2. No officer or director of AHA shall vote on any matter in which such person or any member of such person's immediate family (as defined by USEF/EC) has a direct or indirect financial interest or a direct personal interest without prior approval of the Board of Directors after a full disclosure of the facts. (BOD 5/93)

3. When designated confidential, any information or material given or distributed to the officers, directors and board committee members (as defined in Chapter 5.) of AHA shall be kept confidential and not further passed on or disseminated.

4. Contracts and Agreements,
   a. Contracts and agreements which exceed the signature authority of staff in terms of monetary value or have duration of more than one year shall be referred to the Executive Committee or the President for prior approval.

b. All contracts and agreements must be signed by the President and/or the Executive Director or, in matters pertaining to the Judges and Stewards Commissioner’s office, by the President and/or the Judges and Stewards Commissioner.

c. All contracts and agreements must be maintained at the Association’s headquarters. AHA will not be responsible for or rely upon verbal agreements.

d. Non-financial agreements such as trades or exchanges that have a monetary value over $50 must be documented. All such agreements (verbal, trades, or exchanges) must be documented and confirmed in writing by the appropriate authorities representing both parties. (BOD 5/93) (BOD 6/96)

e. All contracts pertaining to an AHA National Championship Show must be reviewed and approved by the appropriate show commission prior to the contracts being presented to the President, Executive Committee or Executive Director for approval. This process must be done in a timely manner so the President, Executive Committee or Executive Director has a minimum of fourteen days to review and discuss the contracts prior to their discussion for final approval. (BOD 11/98) (BOD 1/99)

CBP 103. BUDGETS

1. Compliance with budgets is the responsibility of both the respective Chair and Staff Liaison. Budgets will be adhered to by all committee members and closely monitored by both the Chair and Staff Liaison. Anticipated or needed expenditures in excess of budgeted amounts must have prior approval of the Executive Committee or Board of Directors of AHA. Events or changes that negatively impact the Association’s fund balance must be reported immediately to the Executive Committee.

2. All documents and records pertaining to the Association’s business will be maintained at the Association’s headquarters. Any member in possession of applicable documents and/or records must forward them to the respective Staff Liaison or the Executive Director in the Association’s headquarters.

3. All Association bank accounts will be established by and maintained at the Association’s headquarters. All funds will be handled by AHA staff in accordance with established accounting procedures under the direction of the AHA Treasurer. No committee or any of their members shall approve or make arrangements for the handling of funds outside of these established accounting procedures.

CBP 104. EFFECTIVE DATE OF BOARD MOTIONS AND RULE CHANGES.
(Also see CHAPTER 9, RULE 105)

1. If not otherwise permitted by these rules to be effective immediately, the Board may make any motion effective immediately if designated as such and passed by a 2/3 vote of the Board of Directors.

2. The August Board meeting will be the last meeting for rule changes to be incorporated in the Handbook. (Exception: rule changes after the August Board of Directors meeting will require a 2/3 vote of the Board to be included in the Handbook). (BOD 8/98)

CBP 105. VACANCIES

1. Except where vacancy procedures are specifically defined in the AHA Handbook:

   a. All vacancies on committees elected by the AHA Convention Delegates will be replaced by the person with the next highest votes received by the vote at that Convention and if none, will be elected by the Board of Directors at its next regular meeting. (Exception: Ethical Practice Review Board and Probable Cause Panel – See ETHICS 106.4 and ETHICS 107.4);

   b. All vacancies on committee elected by AHA Board of Directors shall be replaced by election of the AHA Board of Directors.

   c. All vacancies on committees appointed by the President will be replaced by the President.

   d. All vacancies of Purebred Arabian Trust appointees will be replaced by the Purebred Arabian Trust.

CBP 106. QUORUMS AND OPEN MEETINGS (BOD 5/07)

1. For all committees doing business in person, by conference call or by other electronic means, a quorum shall be 10 members of the committee or 50% of the committee membership, whichever is less. (Note: Some committees have a different quorum stated in their charter. In those cases the existing quorum requirement remains unchanged.) (BOD 8/98)

2. All committee meetings at Convention, both Tier A and Tier B, shall be open to any AHA member, unless specifically authorized by the AHA President to be closed.

CBP 107. CHAIR LIMITATIONS (BOD 5/07)

1. A person may serve as a Chair of no more than one standing committee. This does not apply to ad hoc committees. In an exceptional case the Executive Committee may override this limitation.

CBP 108. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE LIMITATIONS (Res. 5-08)

1. No individual, who is a member of the Executive Committee may serve as a chair of Arabian Breeders Sweepstakes Commission, Budget & Finance Committee, Canadian National Show Commission, Market Development and Promotion Committee, Registration Commission, Sport Horse National Show Commission, U.S. National Show Commission or Youth National Show Commission.
