Meet the Year End Distance Horse Award Winners

(8-FEB-2018) AURORA, COLO. — The Distance Horse of the Year award is presented to an Arabian, Half-Arabian/Anglo-Arabian for outstanding achievements in distance events that year. The award recipient is honored by a name plate on the perpetual trophy and being listed on the Arabian Horse Association (AHA) website. In addition, the owner of the horse receives a take-home trophy to display.

OT RASA RSI came away as the winner of this prestigious award at the 2017 AHA Annual Convention. This athletic ten-year-old chestnut mare is owned and bred by Outlaw Trail - Crockett Dumas. Over the past two years, OT RASA RSI and Crockett have completed 3,275 total miles. They have completed 1,835 miles in the 2017 competition season alone. Over her career thus far, OT RASA RSI has a 94 percent completion rate! She completed all but one of her 2017 rides. OT RASA RSI is an exemplary mare and deserving of her title as the 2017 Distance Horse of the Year. Congratulations to Crockett and his mare, OT RASA RSI. Good luck in the 2018 competition season!
