Discounted Registration Fee Offered for Older Arabian Horses

Discounted Fees Available for AHA Members

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - Aurora, CO – September 24, 2019 – Do you have an unregistered Arabian, Half-Arabian or Anglo-Arabian that is two years old or older in your barn? The Arabian Horse Association (AHA) “Amnesty Program” for older horses offers reduced registration fees for domestic horses. Purebred Arabian horses age 2 and older whose parentage can be qualified through DNA typing and who are able to meet all registration requirements are eligible. Half-Arabian and Anglo-Arabian horses must also meet registration requirements.

The Amnesty Program runs through March 15, 2020.

At $250, owners save $100 off purebred Arabian registration. Half-Arabian and Anglo-Arabian owners pay $150. Please note that these are member fees. The non-member fees are $300 and $200, respectively. A $15 fee is assessed if ownership needs to be transferred.

Owners greatly expand their options to participate in programs and competitions when they register horses. Shows, distance rides, races, prize money, awards, recognition and the camaraderie of sharing many activities with other Arabian horse enthusiasts are some of the benefits enjoyed by owners with registered horses.

To obtain a Registration Application, call the AHA office or download a form from the AHA website.
