Meet an Arabian Horse Day Was a Huge Hit!

Thank you to everyone who participated and shared their horses with the world

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - Aurora, CO – October 2, 2019 – Throughout the September 21 weekend, numerous Arabian horse barns, clubs and individuals brought their horses out to the public for Meet an Arabian Horse Day.

Meet an Arabian Horse Day was designed to introduce the public to the Arabian horse, and encourage them to take the next step in involvement, including lessons, volunteering, or even looking into horse ownership.

On September 21 alone, over 20 events took place across the nation, and over 2,000 people were exposed to the Arabian horse. To see the full list of events that took place visit arabianhorses.org/HorseDay.

There are still more events planned for the following weeks in October, with the total number of hosted events climbing to over 30 that will reach over 5,000 people.

Thank you to everyone who hosted an event, to those who are planning on hosting an event, and to those that brought their horse(s) out to connect new individuals to our breed. Stay tuned for future similar events as AHA works on providing materials to help our members promote Arabian horses locally. Thank you to the Purebred Arabian Trust for their support of this program.
