The 2021 United States Arabian and Half-Arabian National Championship Horse Show Returns to Tulsa

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - Aurora, CO – October 1, 2020 – The 2021 United States Arabian and Half-Arabian National Championship Horse Show is returning to Tulsa, Oklahoma from October 22-30th for another great year of competition!

Returning to Tulsa for its 55th year, the US National Championship show will host exhibitors and horses from all over North America, competing in classes like Country English Pleasure, Reined Cow Horse, Hunter Pleasure, and even Halter. With almost 2,000 horses slated to compete at US Nationals, there is sure to be an interest for everyone. Stop by to enjoy the show with free admission and parking for all spectators. Then, head to the Exchange Center to shop from a selection of curated vendors from across the country.

This year, you can see all the spectacular barn setups and stall fronts, meet an Arabian horse, and take a look into the behind the scenes of an AHA National Show when you sign up to take a T.A.I.L. Tour! T.A.I.L. Tours will happen periodically throughout the show, giving the public exclusive access to an AHA National Horse Show. Tour participants will have the chance to spectate, walk through the barns, and meet an Arabian horse. Learn more or sign up for a T.A.I.L. Tour here.

Additionally, US Nationals will host a Youth Judging and Hippology Contest where youth teams from across the United States will compete for the title of National Champion. The Judging Contest will consist of various classes for youth to judge, while the Hippology contest will test knowledge in the form of short tests and questions.

Lastly, exhibitors, show attendees, and spectators will have the opportunity to visit the Rose Room to take a commemorative picture, give a short interview, or share a #RideForTheRoses memory. The Rose Room Booth will be located between the Mustang and Ford Truck Arenas.

You can follow all the #RideForTheRoses content by following AHA on Facebook, Instagram, and Tik Tok. Sign up for the US Nationals Live Feed here. Find the class schedule here.
