Why does my acknowledgement read that I am not qualified at this time?

- Are you showing in an Owner class? Refer to USEF rules GR123, GR142 & AR110.4
If you are showing in an owner class and the rider is not the same as the owner or one of the owners listed on the horse's registration papers, if you did not specify the relationship between owner and rider, especially if last names are different, we cannot verify the qualifications for that owner class. For joint ownership if the owner and riders last names are different, putting "owner" as the relationship is not definitive enough and needs to be more specific. i.e Daughter, Sister, Niece or a relationship as defined by USEF GR123 Family rule.

NON RELATED co-owners must comply with USEF rule AR110.4

Quick review

Registration must be AND not or

One non related co owner can not be a pro or related to a pro or be an entity, farm or business.

If a farm or entity is the recorded owner of the horse, all owners must be related if one owner is entering an owner class.

Relatives of the 2 non related co-owners can not show in an owner class.

Not eligible for Performance Maturity classes or

Not eligible for ABS AAOTR Jackpot classes or ABS AAOTH Performance halter

Not eligible for the AEPA, AWPA, AWWA, BREEDING PAYS or the AHPA program classes.

If you fall into these categories please call or email AHA to verify the relationship and have your back number available for quick reference to the AHA staff.

- Was your show held recently or did you earn qualifications after September 1, 2022
If so, the results may not be in the AHA system. Show Secretaries have two weeks to submit show results to AHA for official processing. Please check our website to see if the show results have been processed. If they do not appear on the website, we are either currently processing them or are awaiting their arrival. Until the results appear on the website we are unable to check qualifications from the show.
You can view show results once you log into your home page and under "I want to.... use the link "AHA Horse/Rider Points and Competition Records." On the next page select either Horse or rider and enter the required information. If results are not on the web site you can submit a check out statement from the shows that lists the rider & placing in the class OR a fill out a Verification of Qualification found on the web site signed by the Show Secretary and bring it to the show with you.
