OFFICER REQUIREMENTS

As a candidate for an AHYA Executive Committee Office, I agree to the following if elected:

1. Abide by the AHA Code of Ethics (see AHA handbook).
2. Attend the following events, partially chaperoned, at AHA's expense (travel only):
  - Two AHYA Board meetings: November Meeting at the AHA Annual Convention in Denver, CO and 2016 Youth Nationals and AHYA Convention in Albuquerque, New Mexico. All five executive youth committee officers will attend.
  - AHYA March Board meeting in Denver, Colorado at the AHA head quarters. Travel expenses for this meeting are earned based on participation of donated items for the AHYA Silent Auction.
3. Attend the following events as an AHYA Officer at the officer's own expense:
  - 2016 AHA Youth Nationals and 2016 AHYA Convention in Albuquerque, New Mexico
  - Home region's meetings, championship show, and any youth retreats or youth mini conventions
  - Local club meetings and horse shows in your area
  - Other events as scheduled (such as FFA Convention, AYHC Symposium, etc.)
4. Participate in official AHYA conference calls paid for by AHA
5. Maintain an efficient and regular level of communication with your Regional Youth Coordinator, Regional Youth Director, Youth Committee and staff.
6. Submit a typed officer update as requested to AHA, your Regional Director and Regional Youth Coordinator on your progress locally, regionally, and nationally within AHYA.

I have carefully reviewed and agree to the above officer requirements.
